

KNOWLEDGE RESOURCE CENTRE

Content Management Team - Leader

Location | Bangalore

Position ID: CMTL/KRC

Role

- To setup, lead and manage a team of excellent development communicators with deep understanding of current discourses in education and development with particular relevance to India.
- To position the intranet within the Foundation as the principal platform for knowledge sharing within the organization
- Manage the flow of knowledge from one unit to another within the Foundation to capture experiential and thematic learning and enable collaborative working through face to face and virtual modes
- Network with external academic, action and policy think tanks to enhance the Foundation's understanding of the domains of their engagement by learning from global experience.
- Coordinate with the communication wing to ensure that critical information and knowledge generated by the organization is shared with relevant external partners.

Qualification and Experience

- Ph.D.in education/ any social science / development studies
- Professional experience in mass communication with around 15 years experience globally OR Professional experience in Knowledge Management Services in an academic institution of repute for 10-15 years.

Attributes and personal Competencies

- Excellent communication skills ( oral and written)
- Ability to establish easy working relationships and quality partnerships with external think tanks, policy units, academia, government and non government organizations for knowledge sharing.
- Awareness of global repositories of knowledge – including academic and grey literature.
- Awareness of cutting edge discourses in education and development in India and globally.

- Ability to manage communication platforms – face to face and virtual
- Understanding of corporate communication and leveraging knowledge externally for social change.
- Ability to teach at the University, depending on interest and relevance from both sides and conduct, publish and present independent research in national and international forum.