

UNIVERSITY RESOURCE CENTRE

Member – Academics & Pedagogy, Social Science

Location | Bangalore

Position ID: MAPSS/URC

Role

Pedagogy of Social Sciences is a unit of Academics and Pedagogy wing of University Resource Center, engaged in providing cutting edge practices/theories for teaching Social sciences. Member - Pedagogy of Social sciences will provide high quality content creation and delivery support to University resource center's continuing education programs in the area of Pedagogy of Social Sciences. This position reports to Specialist - Pedagogy of Social Sciences.

Principal Responsibilities

- Create a body of knowledge- both theory and practices, concerning Pedagogy of Social Science.
- Conceptualise and create short term and long term continuing education programs for teachers and education functionaries in the realm of Social Science teaching.
- Designing modules based on the development needs analysis, for Teachers and Education functionaries.
- Facilitating sessions with teachers and education functionaries.
- Conceptualizing capacity development programs for Teachers, field staff and education functionaries.
- Visiting schools regularly and supporting teachers.
- Translation and validation of the content.
- Provide subject matter expertise support to other units/functions of the University.

Qualification and Experience

- Degree in education/Strong domain knowledge of education
- Post graduation in History and Civics- Ability to take up conceptual analysis of the content.
- Classroom teaching experience with innovative classroom practices.
- At least 3 yrs of experience in designing modules, facilitating sessions with teachers.
- Experience of dealing academic issues with teachers.
- Fluency in Kannada and English or Hindi and English

Attributes and Personal competencies:

- Ability to unlearn and relearn
- Willingness to travel
- Good interpersonal skills, proven facilitation skills
- High resilience